JAMES CUMMINS

Passed Away at Atlanta, Ga., Tuesday Afternoon—Remains Will Be Brought Here For Interment.

Word was received here yesterday by Mr. W. F. Hall announcing the death of Mr. James Cummins, at his home in Atlanta, Ga., Tuesday afternoon, but did not give any particulars regarding his death.

Mr. Cummins formerly resided in this city and was engaged in the undertaking business with Mr. John W.
Porter, for a number of years. For the past three years, however, he has held the position of Superintendent of Hollywood Cemetery Company, in Atlanta, Georgia.

The remains are expected to arrive on most any train and they will be taken immediately to the Maysville Cemetery, where a short service will be held by Rev. R. L. Beau, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church.
(There seems to be some doubt about the death of Mr. Cummins, as his remains have not arrived here for burial.)

DEADLY PITS TELL

AWFUL STORY OF WARS HORRORS

London, Nov. 5.—The correspondent of the Chronicle in Northern France states that the Bannockburn rose has been repeated successfully by the British in the battle of the Yser. He says:

"About 25 yards in front of our trenches deep pits were dug. These were covered with branches and loose turf, as at Bannockburn, and into these the Germans fell in heaps, calling out pitifully when, too late, they discovered the strategem."

"Our troops watched their destruction with a grim sang froid and continued to bring down as many as possible before they reached the pits so that they would not be too quickly choked."

"Although the Germans more than filled the pits others came on in greater numbers and the pits soon became a scene of appalling horror. The Germans struggled, cried and fought one another in their vain attempts to extricate themselves. Many were accidentally transfixed by the bayonets of those who had first fallen, while others were shot by comrades. A shell fell into one pit and the huddled mass within was blown out of existence."

HEAVY NAVAL LOSSES MARK
FIRST MONTHS OF THE WAR.

One hundred and sixteen warships of all kinds have been destroyed, damaged or otherwise been put out of action since the war began, according to a detailed admission of the various countries, supplemented by reports from unofficial sources.

Some of the unofficial statements have not been confirmed by the interested governments, particularly in the cases of Germany and Austria. The total official and unofficial losses are:
Germany, 46; England, 24; Austria,
23; Russia, 16; Japan, 3; France, 2;
Turkey, 2. Total 116.

YOUNG PEOPLES' DAY.

As one of the special days in the Maysville church campaign, the Christian Church will have a Young Peoples' day.
All the younger members of the church are expected to be in attendance upon the morning church service.
An appropriate and timely message will be given in the sermon to the young people by the minister, A. P.
Stahl.

OPENING BASKET BALL GAME.

The boys' basket ball team of the Maysville High School will journey to Germanstown this afternoon and will play the first game of the season with the boys of that place. The line up will be as follows:

Center—G. Martin.
Forwards—Sid Parker and Clarence Wood.
Guards—Joe Edwin Mathews, and Henry Shen.
Substitutes—Stanley Parker and Cecil Dixon.

HISTORICAL AMERICAN PAINTINGS GIVE PLEASURE, NOTWITHSTANDING DIFFICULTIES

Those who saw the Historical American Paintings at The Gem Theater, Thursday afternoon and evening, no doubt saw the possibilities in the collection under favorable conditions.
That all these possibilities were not realized was due first to the fact that the operator found that the slides were made for a candelum light and that the electric current was too strong to permit of keeping each picture on the screen long enough.

It is the purpose of those making the collection that each picture should remain on the screen one minute, giving time for explanation and comment.

The second disadvantage was in the fact that the lecturers had had no opportunity to look over the manuscript, which was not received until the day
the pictures were used.

Neither of these conditions can affect the picture exhibit to be shown at Miss Luman's millinery store in December. The time given to each piece of pottery will be determined by each inspector for himself.

If the Art Department of The General Federation of Women's Clubs next year offers Maysville the sixty slides of Contemporary American Paintings, they should be shown at the High School Auditorium, free to all the schools, and ten cents charged adults, to meet the necessary expenses. Then each picture can be given its full time and the entire evening devoted to the pictures.

But even with the disadvantages named the dignity, high character and beauty of the portrait could not be obscured, the exquisite atmosphere and exploring of the landscapes destroyed or the impressiveness of the symbolic paintings and the morals lost.

MISS MARGARET STAHL

Delights Large and Appreciative Audience at High School Auditorium
Last Night in the First Number of the Lyceum Course.

Last night at the High School Auditorium, Miss Margaret Stahl held the undivided attention of some five hundred people when she gave a dramatic reading of the play "Strongheart."

Miss Stahl is significantly gifted as a reader. Accurate in concept, effective in rendition and fascinating in personality, she captivated her audience. Her depiction and interpretation of the various characters swept the audience from one emotion to another and at the same time drove home a wholesome and uplifting lesson.

Miss Stahl is an artist in every sense of the word and she has attained a pre-eminent place among women readers, being regarded as a model for other readers. Simple, unaffected and natural, her art is completely sincere, close to life and character, utterly free from the chrome qualities that make the declaimers odious to the intelligent listener.

This was Miss Stahl's second appearance in Maysville and it was thought by many that her rendition of "Strongheart" was even better than "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," given two years ago.

mense copper interests in the West, died

THE FINAL TRIUMPH OF RE-

PUBLICAN PROTECTION COMING.

Although we got a few body blows from the one we loved best—Old Kentucky, God bless her—there is nothing but good tidings for Republicans in the returns from yesterday's election.

A Governor and a Senator in New York, a Governor in Massachusetts, a Governor and a Senator in Ohio, a Senator in Pennsylvania, new Republican members of Congress everywhere, the return of dear old Uncle Joe from the Danville District in Illinois, the swamping of the Bull Moose brigade where it would liked best to have lived longest—all of these things bring good cheer to the heart of the old-fashioned Republican and make him look forward to the battles of 1915 and 1916 with confidence and with a determination to roll up his sleeves and fight for the restoration of the principles of McKinley and Taft with as much vim as he can throw into the battle.

Although it would have been magnificent to have regained control of the lower house of Congress, there is a grain of comfort in the fact that the Democrats will continue in power in both branches.

They will be responsible to the people for the legislation of the next two years, and they will not be able to place upon a Republican House all of the blame for their own failures to administer the affairs of the government wisely and economically.

And so, Forward March!—Lexington Leader.

PLEASE REMIT

When the bill of the great war comes to be settled, it will be found a stupendous one. Political economists estimate that, in the event of hostilities lasting six months, the monetary loss to the world will aggregate $17,000,000,000, and conditions will be such that national loans aggregating $8,000,000,000, will be needed. In times of peace, the annual military expenditures of all the European nations reach $1,772,156,000, so that half of a year of war at the present tension would equal nearly 20 years' expenditures in peace time. These estimates do not include the great loss sustained by industry and commerce, nor the crops, buildings, and other property destroyed, but relate solely to the provisioning, feeding, wages, cost of mobilization, ammunition (land, sea and aerial), ambulances, outfitting, bridges and pontoons, fuel, requisitions, loss on taxes and general incidentals connected with the actual operations of a campaign as vast as that which is now under way in Eastern and Western Europe.—Christian Herald.

LOOKS NICE ON PAPER

The Postmaster General is advocating a new plan to put the entire rural mail service into the contract class, as has been the policy with the so-called Star routes. By doing this the Government would save twenty million dollars a year.—Carlisle Advocate.

Instead of saving "twenty millions," it would practically bail the country, and make this splendid department a thing of public barker.

INTERESTING

On this day, the 4th of November, 1914, it would be interesting to know just what thoughts are running through the mind of the most widely advertised citizen of Oyster Bay, Long Island.—Times-Star.

The Hon. John Crepps Wickliffe Beckham has certainly earned and waited long enough for his Senatorial toga. His triumph is indeed a notable one, and his work for his party entitles him to it all.

If this thing goes on Der Kaiser may make a gun to shoot clear across the Atlantic and blow up Uncle Sam's whole farm without coming across with his big army.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN ITS 56TH YEAR

After the election of 1912 one of the weeklies ran a cartoon in the form of a map of the United States. It was all white except for two small spots of black, representing the States of Vermont and Utah. Under the cartoon were these words:

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN THE 56TH YEAR OF ITS AGE.

Well, the Republican party is now fifty-eight years old. On Tuesday it carried Pennsylvania by 200,000. It carried New York, Ohio and a large number of other States. It greatly increased its representation in Congress; at this writing it seems not impossible that it has even gained control of the Lower House. As for the Progressive party, born of spite and selfish ambition, it is now a thing to be pitied rather than censured.

It was a great victory for the Republican party. That party has held to its principles; it has not kowtowed to the demagogues who tried first to coerce and later to annihilate it. The self-seekers who have been making their way in politics and in journalism by preaching wild theories that were either nonsense or revolution, have had their day.

The people are coming back to a Republican way of thinking. The party of Lincoln has enormously improved its position for the great battle of 1916.—Times-Star.

SOME REASON

The truth seems to be that people care less for political meetings than in the days of old. Perhaps the people are becoming more sensible.—Athens Globe.

THE AVERAGE CANDIDATE

Other objections might be urged successfully, but our chief criticism of the average candidate is that he takes himself so seriously.—Ohio State Journal.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment, the passages are too frequent or scanty. They help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

"I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I was a great deal better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mofford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

TALKS TURKEY

To a Turkey Man—A Little Story of a Merchant and a Farmer.

Here is the story of the turkeys. Read it, you merchants who are pestered by retail mail order competition and by the selfish tactics of your customers. You will find it is good for that tired feeling. It's true also.

A few days before last Thanksgiving a farmer drove to the store of an Eastern general merchant and called out:

"Frank, what are you paying for turkeys and geese?"

The merchant replied he was raising the market price about four cents a pound.

The farmer received the news with every evidence of satisfaction. He had a lot of good, fat turkeys and geese and saw in the merchant's offer a chance to make a nice little clean-up. He purchased a few things in the store—for appearance's sake—and went out.

He informed his wife—on reaching home—that the prices on turkeys, geese and chickens had jumped. The whole family went to work preparing the poultry and next day the farmer drove back to the store with a big wagon load of what he declared to be the finest specimens of Thanksgiving outfit ever seen in that state. He told the merchant that he had brought his turkeys and geese.

"What turkeys and geese?"

Frank, "I don't remember of telling you to bring me in any."

"Well," said the farmer, "I was in here yesterday and you told me you were paying 29c a pound for turkeys and so on."

"Yes, that is so," the merchant replied, "but I never told you I would buy them from you. I merely gave you the prices I was paying."

The farmer was deeply chagrined. He muttered something about having gone to a lot of trouble to prepare the poultry and now he had it on his hands.

"I wonder what I will do with this big load?" he asked.

"Why don't you send it to a Chicago catalogue house from which you get most of your stuff?" asked the merchant. "Maybe they will buy it. At least they ought to. You certainly spend enough money with them. I recommend that you try it."

What could the farmer say? Nothing. This is just what he did say as he left the store and started off with his load of turkeys, geese and chickens.

After driving about fifteen miles he managed to dispose of his poultry in another town at a price much smaller than he expected to get. A thing never is worth so much at a forced sale.

As the farmer drove home in the rain that night after a hard and dusty factory day he thought the thing over from the standpoint of the merchant.

The more he thought the less angry he grew. And like St. Paul, he finally became clothed and in his right mind. Next day he showed he was a real man by going back to the merchant and admitting that he had been caught a lesson which he would always remember.

"Hereafter," he said, "I am going to buy my things from you."

"Good for you," was the reply. "I will watch you on that very proposition. I also will buy my things from you!"

The two parted the best of friends and their transactions during the past year have been mutually pleasant and profitable.

All of which goes to show that a little nerve now and then is relished by the best of men.

When right is on your side, Mr. General Merchant, why be mealy-mouthed in dealing with your customers?

Hit hard when hitting is necessary. One or two mighty blows from a big sledge hammer are worth more than a thousand taps from a tack hammer.

PORTSMOUTH STEEL PLANT SHUT DOWN INDEFINITELY.

The Portsmouth Steel Company has closed its large plant indefinitely and not a wheel will be turned until new orders are received. It may be next week and again it may be a month or a year. The European war held their trade up, if anything, on account of the ocean traffic coming to a standstill. Since the liners have resumed their routes, the country is being flooded with foreign iron and steel products. The prospects of an early opening of the large mills are very slim.

The average man has about the same chance to make good in New York City that a small town girl has to marry a rich man.

400,000,000 NEW STAMPS

Government Printing Presses Speeding To Turn Them Out.

Washington.—Government printing presses are speeding to turn out 400,000,000 internal revenue stamps required by the new war tax. In the meantime, dealers and manufacturers in tobacco and others required to pay the special taxes will have all of November to obtain the necessary stamps, although the law became effective Monday. The internal revenue bureau already has received small quantities of stamps and soon will be in position to care for the demands from collectors. Where stamps are not ready in sufficient quantities a provision in the law meets the situation and the tax will be paid later.

"A PAIR OF SIXES"

The long and anxiously awaited appearance of H. H. Frazee's international comedy hit, "A Pair of Sixes," will occur Monday night, November 9, at the Washington Theatre. It comes to Maysville direct from its run of a year at the Langacre Theatre, New York City, where it enjoyed a season of popularity seldom accorded to a farce. Mr. Edward Peple, the author, has evolved in "A Pair of Sixes" a cleverest comedy that is full of vim and satire and works out to a logical conclusion that is surprising as it is satisfying, the farce being especially clever in that, for once in comedy annuals, the action of the plot is cumulative and each act closes with a rousing climax that leaves the audience gasping in its seat with laughter. H. H. Frazee is well known as a New York manager who insists upon a perfect cast for every company he sends upon the road and "A Pair of Sixes" is no exception to this rule containing in the cast, as it does, such well known names as Bertha Kreighoff, Martha Oatman, Rita Carlyle, John L. Kearney, Caroline Leonard, Kendall Weston, Stanley T. Wood, all of whom played their respective characters during the New York run at the Langacre.

THE VALUE OF A QUAIL

An Analysis Gives Actual Contents In The Stomach of a Single Bird.

Pipe hundred and sixty-eight mice, one hundred and nine potato beetles, two thousand and three hundred and twenty-six plant flies, one hundred and thirty-nine grass hoppers, twelve squash bugs, twelve cut worms, twelve army worms and eight white bugs—all these, says the State Game Warden of Tennessee, have been found in the stomach of a common quail.

"What would that bird and its mate have been worth to you?" he asks, "if they had reared their little brood on your farm?"

The interesting and appalling menu shows that the birds protect not only crops and orchard, but also the health of men and animals. Many of the insects they destroy are carriers of diseases. A bull bat, we are told, will devour a thousand mosquitoes in one twilight; given due safety and encouragement, a family of bull bats should suffice to free any neighborhood of mosquitoes and prevent many cases of illness as well as incalculable discomfort.

Commenting upon the Tennessee game warden's statement, the Courier-Journal well observes that too many farmers look upon birds "either with indifference or with enmity." A bird which now and then grabs a grain of corn or wheat, a berry or a cherry is regarded as a chronic marauder, whereas he pays in service many times over for all that he gets. In fact, he is a reliable every-day farm hand working seven days in the week, rain or shine, and takes no half holidays. The birds are busy with the break of dawn, and sometimes they work far into the night. They deserve protection for the good they do. There are thousands of farmers who need to look at the bird question from a new viewpoint.

In most Southern States the last few years have witnessed a popular awakening to the value of insect destroying birds and the importance of protecting them. The means to this end that are already in force should be upheld and encouraged by everyone, particularly by the farmers, who are so closely identified with birds.

BUYING OF TURKEYS HAS BEGUN.

Mr. J. H. Stewart, local manager of the Hunt Bros. turkey pens, announces to the Advocate yesterday that buyers were out in the country this week purchasing turkeys and were paying ten cents a pound. While a large crop is reported, yet it is claimed that the fowls are very small.—Clarke Advocate.

The Clarke tobacco market will open December 1st.

You Make Friends By Recommending a Reliable Kidney Medicine

Your representative called at my door yesterday meaning to leave a sample of your noted Swamp-Root and I am certainly pleased to see anybody connected with the firm who makes a medicine which has done so much for me and my family. A few years ago I was suffering from a terrible pain in my back and when I was up around the house I had to walk with my body bent nearly double. If you had placed a thousand dollars above my head I could not straighten up to get it.

Hearing of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I sent you for a sample bottle and from the effects of that small amount I was sure it would help me so I bought one bottle and it has cured me.

Shortly after that my husband who was a coal miner, was suffering from kidney trouble and could not work and I sent for some of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. He was in a terrible condition, but as the doctors had not given me any relief, I had more faith in Swamp-Root and it was well founded, for it did the work and after taking a few bottles he was completely cured.

I daily recommend the use of Swamp-Root to my friends and neighbors.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. JOHN NORDQUIST,
Burlington, Penna.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 14th day of May, 1912.

WALK-AWAY

In 1916 Expected By Republicans As Result of Democratic Crash

POLITICAL FERRETS DIGGING UP LEADER

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

Washington, Nov. 4.—On top of the Republican landslide, exceeding even the most optimistic predictions of the party leaders, political talk among leaders here tonight consists largely of speculation of the Republican nominee for President in 1916.

The Republicans believe that yesterday's showing against the Wilson Democrats gives them (the Republicans) the White House two years hence, and that it remains only for them to decide who will be the man to occupy it.

These are the possibilities mentioned tonight:

Charles S. Whitman, Governor-elect of New York.

Martin R. Brambaugh, Governor-elect of Pennsylvania.

Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, for per Ambassador to France.

James E. Mann, of Chicago, Republican leader of the House of Representatives.

William E. Borah, United States Senator from Idaho.

Charles E. Hughes, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

Three Are Out of Running.

The trend of political opinion here appears to be that Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and Senator Cummings, of Iowa, as well as Governor Hoadley, of Missouri, are out of the running.

The Republicans—and, for that matter, the Democrats, too—believe that Roosevelt is completely in eclipse, and does not need to be considered as a factor in the 1916 race.

The leaders calculate that the poor showing of Roosevelt's party means that it is practically dead, and that the former President will not be able to "come back." As to Roosevelt being able to seize the nomination of the Republican party, they point to the tremendous beating of his candidates everywhere by the Republican adversaries as showing that the Republicans have no need further to fear his ever again getting an ascendancy over the U. S. P.

The overwhelming victory scored by Whitman in New York has caused the Republican wisemen here to do something. It is regarded that he has an excellent opportunity to bring himself before the National public eye. Mr. Whitman already has something of a country-wide reputation, and with a Republican Senator to help him it is figured he can build up a strong machine for 1916.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOL AT PLEASANT HILL CLOSING WITH SUCCESS.

The very successful term of Moonlight School at Pleasant Hill School House, closed on Thursday evening with an enthusiastic meeting. The several illiterates who had for the first time in life enjoyed the privilege of learning to "read and write," were overjoyed and begged for a continuation of the "Night School."

At the close of the session a Picnic Social and a candy sale was given. A most enjoyable and profitable evening was spent. Many thanks were given the teacher, the trustee, and the other patrons who so ably contributed to the school's excellent success.

Was So Weak and Thin, Thought She Was Going Into Decline. Tells How Vinol Helped Her.

Norfolk, Va.—"My health was very poor. I suffered from nervousness, had no appetite and was so thin, I thought I was going into a decline, and nothing I took seemed to help me until one day a friend came into my office and told me if I would take Vinol it would do me lots of good.

"I have now taken six bottles and have gained fifteen pounds; have a good appetite and can eat anything. It is wonderful what Vinol has done for me in building up my health. My own friends hardly know me and when anyone comes into my office the first thing I begin to talk about is Vinol."—MATTIE DENNING, Norfolk, Va.

RURAL TAX PAYERS PREFER COMING TO TOWN.

(Clarke Advocate.)

Sheriff W. T. Parker and his deputy, James W. Myers, advertised to be at various sections of the county for the purpose of collecting taxes as prescribed by law, but from reports of their week's work it appears that the farmer prefers coming to town and paying his taxes. During the four days in which they were out Mr. Parker states that they only collected $100 at the $65,000 tax money for the county.

In years gone by Sheriffs visited each Magisterial district in the county, or rather made a house to house canvass, and collected taxes, but this custom has faded away.

This plan of collecting taxes was tried by the late C. T. Donnell during the first year he held the office of Sheriff, and he met with the same experience as did Mr. Parker the past week, therefore he never tried it again.
